Currency risk and hedging arrangements

Following categories of costs are dependent on fluctuations of exchange rates:

- Approx. 44% of our programming costs is denominated in Euro and approx. 55% in USD
- 100% of our signal transmission services costs is denominated in Euro

Fluctuations of exchange rates also influence our costs of satellite television receiving equipment:

- Approx. 20% of our costs of satellite television receiving equipment and telephones sold is denominated in Euro and approx. 60% in USD

Our costs of satellite television receiving equipment are based on historical exchange rates – PLN weakening will not be visible in the results of Q4 2008

Hedging arrangements

- Forward transactions for the purchase of the USD 2 m monthly at the rate of PLN 2.3180/USD until September 2009
- Forward transactions for the purchase of Euro 1.5 m monthly at the rate of PLN 3.4590/Euro until March 2009

We hedge approximate 66% of our foreign currency denominated costs in USD until September 2009 and approx. 55% of our foreign currency denominated costs in Euro until March 2009

Our Q4 2008 operating costs increased by PLN 12 m as a result of PLN weakening in Q4 2008 (including forward transactions)

In 2008 we recognized the gain on realized forwards and gain on the revaluation of unrealized forwards of PLN 18 m.

Outlook for 2009

Dominik Libicki
CEO
Outlook for 2009

- Sale in January 2009 higher than in the corresponding period 2008
- An increased in proportion of the leased receiving equipment will have positive impact on EBITDA
- New promotional offers – starting from February 2009 – offering 1, 3 and 6 months without subscription payments
- We consider introduction of new packages (DTH)
- We limit our costs on the MVNO project – sale of MVNO services only to our new and existing DTH subscribers
- As a result of the change in the MVNO strategy the number of MVNO subscribers will grow slower than initially anticipated
- Change of the mobile termination rates – 21.6 gr/min until 30 June 2009, 16.8 gr/min starting from 1 July 2009
